To Whom It May Concern,

Cox Communications staff referred us to Owens Communications to provide the necessary wiring needed for our recent move. Owens Communications staff ran the necessary cabling for our phones and computers. With a move there are always certain things that are needed before and after the move. Owens Communications' staff have done a great job assisting us every step of the way through the move. Timely responses, quick action and good follow up have been highly appreciated by myself and my staff.

Sincerely,
